

What to expect during your sale conveyancing transaction.

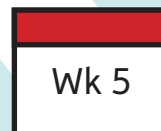

Instruct Attwells, pay money on account and complete the property information forms.

Attwells issues the contract and ownership information to the buyer's solicitors.

Attwells agrees the contract and will help you satisfy all enquiries from the buyer's solicitors.

Moving date agreed and contracts exchanged - This makes the sale binding.

You now have a guaranteed moving date. You can make arrangements and start packing. You will need to sign completion documents with Attwells. You will receive a statement showing the amount you will receive on completion.

Complete. Move out and handover keys, any mortgage is redeemed and you should renew or make a will.

